“ Dear Donald, David, Dean, and Daphne,
I returned from the past four day in Saginaw for the memorial of my dear cousin Darcy and your dear sister. I remain a little numb still and wondering why this happen. When I was working overseas in the past six years, I did keep in contact some with Darcy online. But in the past two years as I dealt with my own challenges and with my work and family I did loose contact with her, especially since my Aunt Deanne passed.
I regret not be able to do better in keeping in contact. Your family and ours were like one to me when we were growing up. Uncle Don was like a father to me. Aunt Deanne was the most kind Aunt anyone could have.

Darcy passing is a difficult reality to understand. I know she had a good soul inside and she was a special girl and women. As a cousin I have good memories of her and will treasure these forever.

I pray for all of you now and for your families. I only hope that in Darcy's passing to the next life with God, we will honor her memories and the family reuniting as a close loving family. God bless all of you and your families.

Thomas Bordeaux
your loving cousin forever

“ Darcy's Family:

I am so very sorry to hear of Darcy's passing. We were the best of friends for so many years; I truly loved her and considered her the sister I never had. She was such a beautiful woman inside and out. To say that I'm saddened falls so short of the way I feel; for you, her true siblings and family I cannot fathom the pain you are going through. I hope that the memories you share bring you closer as you grieve her passing. Sending prayers and hugs your way

“ Dear Donald, David, Dean, and Daphne,
We were very saddened by the news of our cousin. I remember when Don and Deanna would bring the family to our Schultz Family Reunion every year. Those were wonderful times and great memories. Losing a sibling is never easy, and way too young, but God had other plans. May the angels welcome her to paradise and the saints greet her on her way. Sending our sincere sympathy during this time.

“ Darcy, even though it's only been about 6 years since I've known you, you were one of my very best friends. I have countless stories, but what I want to remember most is your kind and caring soul, your beauty inside and out. You and I had a special relationship most will never understand, just a look or a word and we knew what each other was feeling or thinking. I am so saddened by all the things we had planned and left undone. But I hope you are in a better place now. Since I heard of your passing, all I can think of is you calling my name so silly in that nasally voice of yours. Our silly nicknames, she was my Luna, and I was her kitten. We had a love for creepy and abandoned buildings and castles and planned to travel next year to visit as many as we could squeeze in, we wanted to start our YouTube channel giving beauty tips and hints, or just doing silly things, but maybe in our next life. I will definitely miss that smile of yours and our silly way of communicating online using only meme's to talk, but all I can say is Thank You Darcy for being my best friend, thank you for loving me and my family, thank you for being so caring, and thank you for being such a wonderful person. ❤️❤️

“ That should be 6 years that I've known you, not since I've known you.
