“ I can remember when you were much younger and went to the field on the edge of Merrill to the south end of town, climbed over the fence and a cow came after you, so you climbed the tree, SO then I had to go and get our dad out of the office to get you down out of the tree. Loved you so much, and miss you so much. But you are right where you have wanted to be for years, with your wonderful husband Ken, dance a Polka for me!

“ Evelyn, you are truly a special lady who will remain in my heart forever. You always could give me a good laugh and went out of your way to crochet me slippers even though you said you never made slippers before. I will truly miss you. It will not be the same at Pinecrest without you.
