“ Mack was King of the kids on my block. He was our next door neighbor. He was reputed to be the toughest, but I never saw him act aggressively. He was a very introspective man. I never saw him cry in all our years.

“ I still remember how much my daughter Zoey loved Uncle Mack. Now he has been reunited with both her and Tommy. I wish we all hadn't let so many years pass by without staying in touch. You will be missed 🦋

“ Mack was always nice to me and I have fond memories of our childhood. I'm grateful that I knew him and for the times I spent with him. Even though I have not seen him in years, I'm confident the phrase 'give you the shirt off his back' would still apply. RIP. Tom Lynes
