“ Mrs. Crampton and Cathy, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Many memories come flooding back to me about your husband and father. He was my first basketball coach in the 4th grade. I will never forget our games at North Middle School in our snazzy orange uniforms. We were the best dressed team in the league and we were also pretty successful!!! He had the patience of a saint trying to keep us all focused and moving in the same direction. I also remember he continued to take an interest in my school and sports activities through my high school years. Heaven has welcomed a wonderful man!!!

“ Dear Judy, Cathy and family. I am so sorry for the loss of your husband and father. Rest assured that there were many folks from the Crampton clan waiting for him with open arms. And he is resting with God and the angels- finally 'home'. May your memories and faith bring you comfort in the days ahead. With love, Jill.
